Happy Heart's Newsletter

From your Provider

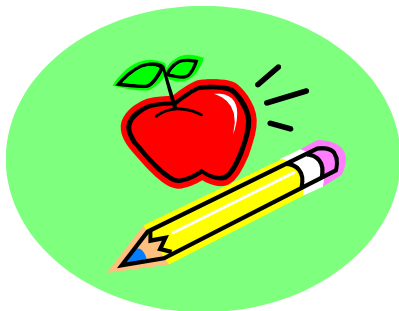

It is Back to School for the children. And for some it is School Starting for the 1st day. It is very hard for me to believe that some of the children I cared for are now going to school. I know how you parents must feel. ☺

Amon Smith and Jerisha Rice started school

Way to go you two, I am so proud of you.

To all my other kids, Keep up the good work.

God bless you.

Please Read

I know that the weather right now is still hot, but children still catch colds, because they are in and out of airconditioned buildings.

I am attaching a list that your child needs while in my home.

You have read most of this in your parents Handbook.

September 1st 2005 A new copy of the parent handbook, will be handed out.

Rules for the Home

- 1.) No running
- 2.) Keep your voices down
- 3.) We do not call each other names
- 4.) No climbing, or playing on furniture
- 5.) NO GUM, NO CANDY

Important

Parents I need to remind you that I must have working phone numbers on file, for you and your alternate.

In case of an emergency I must be able to contact you. If I call you, your child must be picked up within 1 hour. This is your child, and your responsibility.

Starting November 1, 2005 I will send new update packages home, please make sure that they get filled out in a timely manner.

Thank you
